The Lord called his faithful servant home
on April 16, 2021.

Known to many from New Jersey to Pennsylvania to Florida as the legendary "Broadway Joe", the barber that would "make you look like a movie star", the barber that would interrupt a haircut to pray with anyone in need of encouragement. There was no better husband, father or grandfather or friend than our dear Joe. He loved indiscriminately all who crossed his path. Surely he dances in Heaven.

So many of you honored us with your presence at his funeral, we may have missed talking with some of you personally. Please know that we saw you. and we are so touched by your amazing love and respect for Joe. Our thanks to all who sent cards and flowers, attended, prepared, sang and brought cheerful memories to mind for us as we celebrated the life of a man who felt "honored to be your friend,"

With sincere gratitude,
The Pennacchio Family
